Exit Planning for Business Owners Workshop

Our expert speakers, John H. Brown and Don Rogers, will explain why it's important to begin the exit planning process early - even if you don't intend to sell your business for several years. They will also discuss ways to grow the value of your business to maximize your payout.

John Brown is a renowned speaker and author of several books including "How to run your business so you can leave it in Style." Don Rogers serves on the board of directors of both private and publicly held companies and as a partner at Shulman, Rogers, provides his clients with extensive experience in financing, legal and tax knowledge.
